

Build a church

... without pounding a nail

And you can help...while building your own future.

Now you can participate in the Church Development Loan Fund that makes loans to our Kansas United Methodist churches for new buildings, additions or renovation.

This innovative program is funded by Certificates of Participation – available only to United Methodists for a minimum investment of $1,000.* Then we will pay you competitive interest rates for one- and two-year maturities.

With your participation, we can build churches better able to meet the challenges of the future.
